United Nations" indian pharmacopoeia.Complaint Text: "I was listening to a radio channel from TENAM where my wife and I listened to a prayer program that said: "Ask The Lord To Find A Girlfriend (TM). The above prayer program was introduced by a man named Bob G. of the Church of the Simple Truths. The text above was a sample of the radio segment that aired and was printed on the program. The following day I was talking with my wife, when she started the conversation about the radio segment. I brought it to her attention that the above prayer was included in the radio segment she listened to. She became very upset and called me a fool, among other things. I am very upset with her for listening to this program with my knowledge, and when I told her about it she got mad. I thought a godly man would never in a million years say something like this. Are these types of things accepted by Christian people? " Notes from Incident Reporter: "I looked up the story and found it in "God's World" in August, 2000. "Bob G. of the Church of the Simple Truths. "Bob G. is a mentally ill man. That much is clear from the text of the prayer segment itself. The segment was introduced by a female caller. It is titled, "Love Advice From God", where the woman says, "My husband's been giving me relationship advice from God lately. He gives me some good things. "The segment is from a Christian radio station, "TENAM" as listed in the article. "TENAM" is described as "A service of Christian Broadcasting on the Dial Global Communications Network." "The text of the prayer is also given in the article. It says, "Ask The Lord To Find A Girlfriend" followed by a fax number. "Bob G. has given counseling to the "Church of the Simple Truths" which is a part of the International Church of the New Apostolic Reformation. "The Church of the Simple Truths" is described as a "Christian Home of Ministry" with headquarters in Dallas, Texas
