NEW DELHI: Under fire for alleged tax evasion, HDFC Bank has put in place a mechanism where its customers can now give details of their transactions to the tax department without any fear of penalty. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has asked all lenders to get in sync with its decision to ease norms for opening foreign accounts by allowing people from some jurisdictions to do so. On March 21, HDFC Bank had announced a "Customer Support Initiative", which made it easier for customers to file income tax returns. At the same time, the bank also said that it would stop charging interest for such accounts. "As a bank, we have always been working towards customer support. The action that we have taken is in line with the RBI's direction. Under this initiative, we have come out with a transparent and easy way for customers to furnish the details of their transaction to the Income Tax Department," said A Kumar Srivastava, HDFC Bank's chief human resource officer. HDFC Bank today said it has now given a "green signal" to customers who have held their accounts with it for 10 years. The initiative will also help generate more business by increasing transparency in filing of returns. "We have now made it very easy for customers to do this," added Srivastava. Apart from
