“Compress your time” is a time tracking and time management application, developed by Tuxedo Network AG, which allows you to track your time usage. You can measure your time and time period from start to finish, or convert them into graphs and charts. An excerpt from the Tuxedo website: “Tuxedo is a time tracking software, designed and developed by the Tuxedo Network AG and tailored to fit the needs of corporations and business units within the industry. Using the software, business units can track their time usage directly and monitor the costs for each job or project using the embedded billing module. Tuxedo comes with unlimited usage for one company, or for multiple companies, and it can be activated without a contract. Since Tuxedo serves multiple companies, the use of a generic license and service registration system was chosen in order to provide a more comfortable and convenient way of signing up. Tuxedo also does not require any certificate, which allows businesses to use it with or without a company identity.” Tuxedo is designed to cover all professional needs. You can mark the time usage, use standard units or log hours and use a graph or chart to display your working time and costs. The application can be set to open automatically when your system reboots. Tuxedo is a very easy to use application, which supports multiple languages, including English, German, Russian and Dutch. ToDo Pilot [March-2022]

ToDo Pilot is a smart agenda organizer that allows you to plan and schedule your time between multiple tasks. With its modern looking interface and task prioritizing function, you can split your working hours as well as spare time, in order to take care of important aspects. Smart organizing The application enables you to create reminders and add a specific level of priority to each of them, but not burden yourself unnecessarily early with tasks you have to perform next week or next month. ToDo Pilot features colored tabs for Today, This Week, This Month and This Year, but not with specific dates. In other words, you can easily view the events or tasks that need your attention in the future, but not be stressed with reminders. Prioritized tasks The program supports multiple task entries and enables you to customize them. Add the name and assign a level of priority. You can choose between six levels of priority, marked with colors from red – the highest importance – to white. You can specify a task's date of creation, but not the time it is due. Assign an entry for Today, This Week, This Month, This Year or for an unspecified time in the future. Any event added to the latter category can be viewed in the Sometime tab. Background run ToDo Pilot does not stress you with reminders every few hours. However, it does run in the background, on your system and when minimized, it goes to the system tray. This way you can easily access it when you wish to consult your agenda. If a task gets rescheduled, you can instantly update it, by dragging it from one tab and dropping it onto the correct one. Additionally, you may mark the priority levels with numbers, letters or asterisks and set the program to open and run in the background when your operating system starts. Conclusion ToDo Pilot is a lightweight application, with a modern looking interface, that does not stress you with numerous reminders. Instead it makes it easy for you to view and edit any planned task or event, birthday and even grocery lists. Description: iPod, iPad and iPhone App for the creation of tasks and event reminders. With ToDo Pilot you can plan your time and stay organized. • Plan your day, week or month's activities and stick to your plans. • Enable color coding to identify the priority of individual tasks. • Create tasks and make notes using your iOS device. • Choose one or multiple reminders for any event or
