David Smith's Picks 10:08 PM, Jun. 18, 2013 David Smith Written by David Smith Guest Column We are going to cover the 2013 draft in this issue of the magazine. All of the usual rule changes have been made, including the addition of the Pro Combat rule in the hope of making the game more exciting and of greater interest to the casual fan, as well as to the hardcore. The announcement of the 2013 schedule came out last week, and it is the first time in two years that our league's games will all be on Sunday. I had a good conversation with the commissioner about this, and while it may not be a part of the league's philosophy from the very beginning, it is something that I think we should...Q: How can I organize the code of a project? I am currently working on a project where I'm using Git version control to keep track of changes and gitignore files to keep files that shouldn't be committed to my git repo. The problem is that the project has many code folders, and some of them are pretty big (300+
