Benchos UK Oem. · 5.30s. McDowell Street-Swanbrooke Plats: DPW takes the plan under consideration By Emma Allen June 5, 2017 at 4:58 PM Content Options Swanbrooke, NY. The McDowell Street-Swanbrooke Plats plan to create a community park between Swanbrooke and Hawthorne Avenues in Swanbrooke was under review as of press time. Dan Zorn, a member of the Department of Public Works who serves the Swanbrooke area, confirmed that the Department of Public Works is looking into the proposal. "We are looking into it, and as far as where we are at right now with the plans, I can't confirm or deny anything," said Zorn. "Right now, the plan is just pending approval." Swanbrooke resident Jake Hutt, who is the President of the Swanbrooke Neighborhood Association, said he wants to be sure people know that there is an open house scheduled for June 7 from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. in front of the Dancin' Pizzeria on North Swanbrooke Avenue. "We are hoping to hear from the community so we can see what they think and give us any ideas on the process that we are going through," he said. He said people can come to the open house and he will be ready to discuss the plan. Hutt said he hopes to get input from the community and then the Department
